Why did they all have a grin?

It snowed in the night. Zak had a new blue sled, and the hill was white with snow. Sam, Meg and a few friends came to play. But there was just one sled! “I want to go!” said Sam and Zak.

Then Sam had a plan. He drew a line in the snow, and they all got in a row on it. “Each one rides to the end of the hill, then the next one has a go,” said Sam. “It is my own sled, so I can go at the end of the row,” said Zak.

Each friend had a ride, then gave the sled to the next one. “Who goes next?” they said, and the sled flew on the snow. Zak had his ride at the end, and it was the best ride of all! When the sun was low, the snow had a pink glow. Then they all went home with snow on their coats and hats.
